“Upon my arrival in LA in 1990 I was committed to creating a new visual form of writing, a legible Character, (Ideogram) one that at first glance is abstract but upon closer consideration is decipherable. A journey and study of pictorial writing / painting* had begun. These early experimentations would eventually be known as Monosyble or Merge; an approach to painting that transforms composed writing into concise, legible pictographic landscapes. The selection of Early Nineties Monosyble work included in this exhibition are small to medium size pieces, revealing a poetic curiosity and a visual dynamism that provoke the viewer's mind to see!”

The Meet Your (coffee) Maker Café will be open at MARKET for drinks and snacks!!

Early 90's Paintings consist of JMe's personal collection of small to mid-size paintings and works on paper created between 1990 – 1993. See the rarely exhibited “You Are The Figure” painting!! Also a new series of four Monotext paintings inspired by the early 90's work will be presented for the first time.

*I see these two endeavors as inseparably linked
